Junior News

We welcome another 2 junior girls to our club, Kirsten and Naomi. We look forward to including our juniors in our 9 hole competitions during the school holidays. If you are happy to play with them, can you speak to me.

Heather did well at the US Kids golf European Champs at Longniddry and finished in 19th place in her age group which means she has qualified to play at Pinehurst, USA. Well done Heather!

Junior Rep - Joan Mitchell

County News

Ailsa and Mary Summers made a wee bit of golfing history by playing foursomes together for Angus County at the inter county matches at Nairn. Mary started and played in her first ever intercounty match at Nairn 35 years ago and was selected this year to be paired up with her daughter Ailsa. Perth won the event with Angus coming last, however our lowly position didn't really reflect our play with scores as follows -

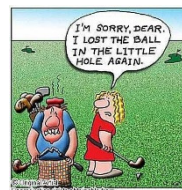

Day 1 Angus 4 Aberdeen 5

Day2 Angus 41/2 Perth& Kinross 41/2games

Day 3 Angus 4 northern counties 5

So had we won 2 more games, we would have been winners!

The next county meeting is at Edzell July 14th. County Rep - Louise Graham
